Confidential Resources
In addition to the above resources, students may report confidentially to the following campus resources that provide support and guidance:

CSU Victim Assistance Team (970) 492-4242
Women and Gender Advocacy Center (970) 492-4242
Women’s Clinic at CSU Health Network (970) 491-1754
CSU Counseling Services (970) 491-6053
CSU Health Network (970) 491-7121

Confidentiality
Complaints of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are treated with the greatest degree of confidentiality possible. In all situations, confidentiality is maintained on a strict need-to-know basis; however, confidentiality can only be respected insofar as it does not interfere with the University’s obligation to investigate allegations of misconduct that require the University to take corrective action.

Law Enforcement
CSU recognizes the importance of protecting the privacy of persons impacted by sexual assault and takes seriously its obligation to balance that privacy interest with legitimate concerns for the safety of others. When necessary to address the risks to the campus community (or specific persons), information regarding reported incidents may be shared with law enforcement personnel (CSUPD or other agencies, as appropriate). CSU emphasizes the importance of encouraging victims of sexual assault to report to law enforcement directly. Assistance with how to make a report to law enforcement may be obtained from any of the offices listed on the Resources page of this brochure.

Retaliation
CSU prohibits retaliation against individuals who engage in the protected activity of filing complaints of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking or who participate in complaint processes. Retaliatory action is regarded as a basis for a separate complaint under the University’s procedures and can lead to sanctions.

Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking Defined

Sexual Harassment is harassment that is of an implicitly or overtly sexual nature, or is based on a person's actual or perceived sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Sexual harassment, including sexual assault, can involve persons of the same or opposite sex, and includes any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, or other conduct of a sexual nature.

Sexual Misconduct is any conduct that constitutes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, or sexual violence. Sexual assault means an actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person's consent; sexual exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage or benefit other than the person being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses herein; and sexual violence is a severe form of sexual harassment, and refers to occurrences as ability and performance. The member of the University community is treated with dignity and rewarded for such relevant considerations as ability and performance. The University prohibits any acts of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking by students, or any retaliation related to acts or reports of any acts. When allegations of this nature are reported, and a student is found to have violated CSU policy, sanctions will result and may include expulsion from CSU. All members of the CSU community are expected to not infringe upon the rights of others.

The Law

Sexual harassment and sexual violence is prohibited in the education context by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and in the employment context by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Section 304 of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013.

Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or partner of the impacted student, by a person with whom the impacted student shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the impacted student as a spouse or partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the impacted student under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Colorado or other jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (a) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or (b) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Consent

Consent to sexual activity is informed, knowing and voluntary. Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent. Sexual activity with someone known, or who should be known, to be mentally or physically incapacitated by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout, or otherwise unable to give consent, is in violation of CSU policy and the laws noted above.
